The matchless victory and the "matchless" history that I. Jay Cummings advertises are of so much interest just now that he concludes not to change his adv. this week.
Paw Paw republicans have been "jollying" ever since the returns began to come in Tuesday night. They marched the streets with martial music until 8 o'clock Wednesday morning, and resumed the noise shortly after the breakfast hour. Lawton sent over two big wagon loads of enthusiastic McKinley-ites Wednesday afternoon, and they joined in the happy chorus. We have not heard a democratic cheer since the closing of the polls.

I do not sell by agents. I do keep a large stock to select from. I do save you one-fourth in price. It will pay you to come here.

New Millinery.
Our new fall stock of millinery has arrived and we invite the ladies to inspect it. The new styles are lovely, and prices were NEVER SO LOW.
Respectfully,
Mrs. M. L. O'DELL.

Local Department.

The silverites put up a big bluff.
Gilbert Mitchell was at Kalamazoo, Wednesday.

Don't overlook Sellick's interesting
adv. this week.

When is that new publishing company to be formed?

Born, on Saturday last, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Lee, a son.

Bert Showerman is in Dakota, on business for the Savings Bank.

The "Gold Bug Killer" must have taken some of his "bug finish" by mistake.

The ladies of the Free Baptist church will serve meals the day of election ratification.

There will be services at St. Mark's Episcopal church, Nov. 8th, morning and evening.

Rev. G. P. Linderman leaves Wednesday evening for a few days' visit in Pennsylvania.

Miss Lucy Bangs has gone to Chicago to spend the winter with her niece, Mrs. Murdock.

Dr. Samuel Stevens of Keeler was a caller at the NORTHERNER office, Wednesday morning.

I. A. Whitman has placed a fine monument on J. J. Woodman's lot in Prospect Hill cemetery.

Rev. J. H. Hammond was at Grand Rapids over Sunday, and there were no services at the Disciple church.

Mrs. J. J. Warner has gone to Hartford, Conn., for a visit and will return to meet her husband here in December.

Mrs. Grout and Miss Ida Hanan attended the funeral of their cousin, Mrs.
Henry Stern, at Kalamazoo, Friday.

The A. C. F. society of Gliddenburg will give an entertainment next Saturday evening for the benefit of Mrs.
Anna Barton.

The ladies of the McKinley club served refreshments to the gentlemen Tuesday evening, while waiting for election returns.

Married, Nov. 2, 1896, by Rev. G. P.
Linderman, at his home, Mr. Emerson Walker of Bangor to Miss Maude Ras-sette of Hartford.

The Catholics desire, through the NORTHERNER, to thank the McKinley club for the use of its club room on Wednesday of last week.

Special trains carried 175 republicans--ladies and gentlemen--to South Haven Monday evening, and a smaller number of silverites to Hartford.

At the Free Baptist church, Sunday morning, the subject will be "Lord's call to Solomon after his sinfulness"; evening subject, "The plan of escape."

David Dillon Jr., Frank Young, Harry Douglas and Merritt Conner, four stalwart young republicans, were among the number who came home to vote.

C. P. Rawson, W. M. Thayer, C.
Engle and Chas. Baugher went north Tuesday on a deer hunt. Sam and M.
D. Buskirk went on a similar errand Wednesday.

The matchless victory and the
"matchless" history that I. Jay Cummings advertises are of so much interest
change his adv. this week.

Paw Paw republicans have been "jol-
lying" ever since the returns began to come in Tuesday night. They marched

not heard a democratic cheer since the closing of the polls.

The theme for the discourse at the First Baptist church next Sunday evening will be "An old time prodigal's return and how it came about." You are invited to be present.

The following letters remain uncalled for in the Paw Paw post office: Mrs.
Francis Camfield, W. C. Cantell, Miss Mayer, L. D. Jaires, Mrs. C. Miller, Henry Moon, James Mosher, S. A.
Breed.

L. E. Trescott received a telegram Monday morning, from his home in New York, announcing the addition of a son to his family. He will go home the latter part of this week, to remain a few days.

The First Christian church of Alma will hold their covenant meeting next Saturday at 2 p. m. to make arrangements for a pastor for the coming year.
There will be services Sunday morning and evening.

Broadhead Post, G. A. R., will hold an open session and give a literary and musical entertainment at the post room on Monday evening, Nov. 9.
Comrades and their families are cordially invited to attend.

Numerous Halloween pranks were played Saturday evening. Probably the most unpleasant joke of the fairies was the greasing of the narrow gauge track at South Haven, so that the special train load of silverites who had been there to attend a meeting did not get home until 3:30 Sunday morning.

An interesting session of the W. C. T.
U. mothers' meeting is anticipated on Thursday, Nov. 5; subject of Bible reading, "Heart Enlargement." Subject of paper for discussion, "Pitfalls for our Boys." At the close, a social half hour with light refreshments will be enjoyed. A full attendance is earnestly desired.

A very natural curiosity has led many of our citizens to ask the whale clothing success to see the famous "H. S. & M." attire for men, which they show this year in greater variety than ever.
Whether you have bought elsewhere or not it is worth while to go in and see the sort of clothing being worn by the best dressed men in all the greatest cities of America. Be sure to examine half off wool sock sale at E. Smith & Co's.

It is reported that Col. Irish of California and his associates, who have been traveling through Michigan speaking in behalf of the Palmer-Buckner ticket, were howled down by a lot of Browites when they attempted to speak at Bangor last Saturday. It is generally supposed that free speech is a sacred right guaranteed to every American citizen, but that seems not to have been the case at all times and places during the present campaign, even in Van Buren County. Horace Olney introduced the speakers and his standing in this county, as well as the honorable reputation of the speakers, ought to have been sufficient to secure them from insult, but it was not.

"Rev. W. J. Hathaway of South Haven, formerly pastor of the M. E. church of this place, attended our silver rally Wednesday and was warmly greeted by the members of his old congregation. He is an ardent free silver man."--Courier.
A friend of Mr. Hathaway mailed him the item asking if the statement in reference to his political preferences was true or false, to which he replied as follows: "I am not a free silver man and the paper's statement has no ground whatever. 'Old Dog Tray.' I am for the gold standard." This is only another instance of the reckless and persistent disregard of truth in the conduct of the campaign of which the Courier has been the local mouth piece.

The last republican rally of the campaign was held at South Haven Monday evening. On the same evening, a demopop meeting was held at Hartford.
Special rates were given on the narrow gauge and at this place 133 tickets were sold for South Haven and 29 tickets for Hartford. Great preparations had been made for a monster parade at the former place, there being some 400 horsemen in line and a large number of ladies' and gentlemen's marching clubs, three bands, transparencies, etc. But just as the parade began, the rain did likewise, greatly interfering with the program and cutting it short--nipping it in the bud, as it were. The crowd was large and jolly and the Paw Paw visitors had an immense time coming home, where the first train load arrived at midnight, the second train reaching here sometime in the "wee sma" hours.

The republican meetings at Lawton last Thursday afternoon and evening were a brilliant affair in every sense of the word. The street parade in the afternoon was fine, the ladies' marching clubs being by no means the least interesting feature. The procession was nearly half a mile in length. Mr.
Chas. E. Townsend, the eloquent young republican orator from Jackson, was the speaker. It was intended to have the speaking in the hall, which was packed long before the beginning of the address. It was apparent that but a moiety of the people could get into the hall and so the program was changed and the people were assembled out of doors around the soldiers' monument, where they had the pleasure of listening to one of the most eloquent, pleasing, convincing and logical addresses of the entire campaign. In the evening there was a fine torch light parade and the scene was brilliantly illuminated by hundreds of Roman candles, the red, white and blue lights of which presented a pleasing spectacle. The spacious town hall was packed in the evening at what was termed a reception to the republican county nominees. The Paw Paw campaign glee club sang songs, the Lawton and Paw Paw bands discoursed music and brief addresses were made by W. C.
McCarthy, Jas. H. Johnson, Jas. E.
Chandler, O. W. Rowland and Thos.
Marr, ex-master of the Michigan State Grange. The occasion was one of the most pleasant and successful meetings of the campaign.

lican Column.

Hamilton for Congress

And Van Buren County Popocrats are 500 too Few.

It was a "landslide." Tuesday's election resulted in one of the greatest victories ever achieved by the republican party.

McKinley will go to the White House, and free coinage and repudiation are henceforth but memories of the "rag baby" order.

Following is the vote of the county in detail:
